Pre-Hash

With the Hares having a battle with the local land owners erecting electric fences in the area a final Hash location with approval of land owner was negotiated by Thursday. Amended misdirections were published same day and resulted in gathering of 42 Hashers for another Hugmanannygoat masterpiece of trail laying. Apparently we are going to be subjected to further trail laying by Hugs for the next two runs (8th and 15th August). Tinks called the assembled hounds together for the pre-run briefing from Hugs who had a little trouble making himself heard over the group of ladies assembled around the Baker. After a call for quiet and the need to listen being emphasised by Hugs the pre-run briefing continued, a little too long for Butt Out who was anxious to get going.

The Trail

The pack set off to the first split for those looking for a short walk which was within the first 500 metres. There remaining hounds looking for a longer trail set off to the first check, quickly broken by Bushwhacker, unusual as he normal gets them wrong. Then onto the next check on an open road which took a little longer to break, but again Bushwhacker was in the new mode and found trail for the second time. By the time we reached check three Bushwhacker closely followed by Tinks were leading the pack. Again Bushwhacker found trail and it was onto check four. This one proved more troublesome for both the leading hounds. Tinks ending up going from second to almost last by the time the call was made.

The Trail according to the Hares: Runners 8.7 km, Long Walk 6 km, Short Walk 4.7 km

The Trail according to Tinks: Runners 9.0 km

On then to a further check and then to the merge with the Short trail. After two more check the pack had the choice of walk or Run/Rambos. At this point Hugs was on station to see who went which way. The trio of Tinks, Paracetamol and Pedalophile posed for a photo followed by Pedal and Para opting for the walk. Tinks set off on the run but was shortly joined by Pedal who decided to do the run instead and leaving Para to complete the walk on her own. Not to be dumped like that Para did an about turn and continued on the run. As they continued on the run trail they were met by the front runners, Swindler, Mudman, Brambles, and Bushwhacker returning from a false trail. This was too much for Pedal and he decide it was back to the walkers trail for him. Brambles eventually found trail and after a further two checks and a lengthy run the walk/run merge was reached and Hugs was on station to offer the carrot of a short cut home. Several hounds opted to take this option including Pedal. By this time Tinks, Para and Bushwhacker were at the back but still opted to complete the full trail. It was a rather long way back, circumnavigating electric fences, to the finish.

Post Trail and Circle

Although a rather lengthy trail for long walk and runners, the pack were in a good spirits as they got stuck into Blowmedry's spicy meatballs and washed down with either cold beer, wine, softies or water. As the evening drew in Tinks eventually called the pack to order for the customary circle and rewards handed out to the following:

- Hares: Hugmanannygoat & Blowmedry
- Hash Snacks: Blowmedry
- Visiting Hasher: Shit in the Pit (Penang HHH)
- Virgin: Nan (with Shit in the Pit)
- Returners: Pedalophile & Wind in his Hair

Birthday Girl: Pussy Galore
No Hash Names: Alan & Susan

Post Circle

After the closing of the circle a few more beverages consumed as the beer truck was packed up and then a procession to the ON After at Subai Subai where some 25+ hashers gathered to continue the evenings social.
