Pre-Hash

With a cloudy morning it was looking like a cooler day for the St Andrews Day Celebration run but as the day went on the clouds dispersed to leave blue skies and an increasing temperature. But luckily there was a strong breeze so that it was not so hot. The hounds gathered for the 4:30 off and a contingent of 42 were ready for the usually Hares briefing prior to the start. Scotch Tape and Brambles advised on there being several options to mix and match sectors of the trail to individuals preferences. Only those choosing the runners trail would need to navigate barbed wire, and there may be a problem with roaming cattle, other than that the brief was go out and enjoy.

The Trails

The runners trail as logged by Tinks

The Pack set off on time and headed through the prickly grass towards White Stone Villas and after 1 km reached the first split for the short walk. By this time the FRB's had sped ahead down a fairly obvious trail to a check which did slow them up a little. The second split was reached at which the runners went left and the remaining walkers to the right. From here the second group of Rambo/Runners, Tinks, Old Mcdonald and Scaley Back came to a check which was unbroken. Tinks and Scaley went in looking for trail while Old Macdonald stayed on the check. During this Time Donkey Cock arrived and trail was found. A bit further on the trail deviated to the right and was missed resulting in a back track and a reminder that shredded paper together with plastic markers was the norm and not just hanging markers. The trail meandered through scrub land and eventually met up with the long walk trail some 3.8 km from the start. A further 1 km and the trail met with the short walk. With all trails now on one track it was another 600 m to the pylon track and the final split with runners going left and the walkers to the right. From here the runners trail followed very much Tinks long walk trail earlier in the year. After a further 1.7 km the trail met up with the walkers whereupon Donkey Cock and Old Mcdonald met up with Tinks, Bent Banana and VD. From here it was 680 m to the finish during which time the slower running group passed the long trail walkers Fish Fingers, Just Cause, HYHMY, one Brick Short, Special Services, David and Shelia Key.

Post Trail and Circle

Tinks was requested not to get the circle going too early as some of the slow hashers need to refuel on their favorite beverage and Miss Snicker snacks and Tinks was one of them. Tinks eventually called the circle to order and the following punishments/accolades were awarded:

Hares: Scotch Tape & Brambles - given thumbs up for their many option trails.

Hash Snacks: Miss Snickers

Biermiester & Helpers: Jock Twat, Legs & Peaches

Scottish Comedians': Jock Twat & Hugs

FRB's: Mudman & Bush Whacker - accused by many as SCB's

Hash Crash: VD & Butt Out

Private Circle: One Brick Short & Cathusalem, Jock twat, Donkey Cock & Old Macdonald

Returners: Slackbladder, Merry Can Can & Donkey Cock

Tartan/White Dress Joke: Hugs

Next Week's CAH3 Run: Old McDonald & Donkey Cock promoted some location but they were unsure, Tinks was also asked to take a double DD with them for alleged sarcasm.

On After

Around 30 hashers made it to Restaurant 94, some struggled with parking, but fun was had by all.
