Pre-Hash

A great turn out, around 60 nutters turned up, for a great trail, meet friends, enjoy snacks, ok it could be the selection of beers supplied, whatever the reason keep coming, as without you there would be no Hash and then what would we do on a Saturday evening,

The Trail

The direction of On On was pointed out by Tinks (with a warning about the hazard of marauding piggies). We entered the woods for a short period of time, emerging at a pineapple field, where the first check was encountered. On On was found, trail taking us to sugar cane fields. Here we were met with another check. This scattered the FRB's in every direction, allowing the slow coaches to catch up.

Donkey Cock took a tumble, did a forward roll, obviously he used to play football in his youth as it was a great dive, red card. Two minutes later Cathusalem went head first followed by Ballbanger. But the best fall near miss was Buttout. Not quite a fall but several Pirouettes and a Pas-de-deux he was given a 7.5 by Screwdriver saying he would have got a 8 but for the daft hair cut was down pointed. Lilly the pink also had a tumble, grazing her knee, but being the tough cookie, she is just brushed it off. I'm beginning to wonder if we need a health and safety officer on site.

The next check was beside a small pond, Hashers familiar with this area knew which direction they wanted to go, but unfortunately the hares had other intentions. We followed the perimeter fence back into the forest, and then met with another effin' check. This time it really confused the hashers (not difficult is it?) One path led to a sign "Runners only - Walkers F.T". Another path from the check led to a sign "Walkers only - Runners F.T. (C'mon hares it's not meant to be the Krypton Factor!) The runners set off on a 3 km loop, whilst the walkers took a leisurely stroll back to the car park and some well-earned refreshments.

Congratulations Dutchy no short cut, she was well pleased with herself, excuse me I hope I'm walking myself to the toilet let alone the hash at her age, well done you.

No sign of the pig, or the snake apparently, Tinks saw when setting the trail, well what can I say we don't know what he was on at the time, was he even sober, was it pink and flying who knows.

The trail was flat but undulating, my eyes were always on the ground looking carefully for pitfalls (My other-half said "Pity I didn't do that coming back from the pub").

Very good trail set out by hares Tinks and Jock Twat

Down downs by GM

A great christening done by our RA Colossus, for three Hashes (Alan - Head Ballcock, Rina - Hong Ting Tong and Jeleine - Pinoy Mucky Pup) well I've never seen so many people waiting to drown the three in water and beer, I do think at least one of them peed themselves with the cold water, but won't mention names hahaha.

Nice to see Kathy at the Hash today, keep the young ones coming as one day they will hopefully take over. While our RA was in the circle with the virgins, one of the ladies started to sing like a virgin, this guy walked up to me and said look at him I bet he's never even heard of Madonna OMG how old did he think Colossus is hahaha I said I will be sure to tell him, the guy just walked away hahaha.

Great snacks our GM Legs Wide Open, who are we kidding won't cook can't cook thanks Jock Twat, great curry potatoes.

Added by Tinks: Other down Downs included the Hares, 4 Hash Virgins Burgit, Herb, Pim & Liz and three Visitors, Prison Bitch, Discharge and Crap Thai. Entertainers Herb and Discharge.

On After

Very good On After, about 30 hashers attended. Service was efficient, looked like everyone enjoyed the meal I know we did.
