GPS Coordinates: N 12.472167, E 99.906833

Google Map Link: <https://goo.gl/maps/eYaRdrwW5r82>

Hares: Head Ballcock & Cock in a Frock

Biermeister Team: JT & LWO

Tax Collector: Tinks

Ice Man: Tinks

Hash Scribe: Tinks

NUMBER OF HASHERS: 30

Pre-Hash

A return to the normal hash with a full stocked beer truck. Yes, a beer truck. Tinks turned up with all the softies, water, and ice together with other sundries from the last hash. It was a return to an old hash start point littered with abandoned Spirit Temples. Although the weather had not been kind to the Hares during the week the RA had prayed for some dry weather and so it was. The pack gradually increased to 30 by the time to call the pre-run briefing by the Hares

Briefing

The Hares Head Ballcock and Cock in a Frock were called into the pre-run circle to brief the assembled pack. We were advised that the trails were flat and that in a few places we may encounter water and mud. Also, there was one water crossing that would test our agility at walking a balance beam. No barbed wire, a few dogs but not a problem. A Rambo/Walk split; the Rambo bit being overplayed by CIAF which probably put some hounds off completing the whole trail. The trail would merge again prior to the On In

The Trail

The trail led off towards the main road and then broke right and came out on a concrete road. The trail then headed east with Sodomy as usual over running the trail to the left. Heading north along a gravel road before a right turn into bushland and to arrive at the river. The trail went right and followed the river until the bridge crossing. The FRB's could be seen on the other side of the river running in the opposite direction. Short cut option was to swim, but no takers. Having taken the bridge, the trail went left and followed the river again and then taking a right to the balance beam crossing and then on through a very foul-smelling bog patch before coming out onto pineapple fields. A turn to the right and onto a dirt road where again Sodomy overran the trail to the right. The trail then led to the R/W split. I opted to follow the Rambo Trail and Rubber Scrubber and Hubby Pete went on the walk. The Rambo trail led down through some heavy bush before coming out in a large open area. The trail then meandered around pineapple fields and over undulating ground and then followed a water course which had to be crossed at some time. With the FRB's heading back on the opposite side of the water course a crossing point was eventually found over a pile of tree rubbish. Up the bank the other side and then onto the R/W Merge. Over the bridge and then right on a gravel road back to the carpark and beer truck.

Post Run & Circle

The weather had been kind on trail and continued for the general chit chat, beverage drinking and crisp eating post hash gathering. With the skies starting to cloud over and Head Ballcock calling for the circle to start, Tinks called the pack to order and proceeded to award down downs as follows:

Sodomy & Butt Out: Private circle, BO complained of warm beer.

Head Ballcock and Cock in a Frock: Hares - voted a thumbs up for both trails. DAL complained about opening the sluice to allow water through to make the final crossing more difficult.

Ding-a- Ling: Short cutting across young pineapple field and feeling guilty having done so that he back tracked to make up the distance.

Hot Pot, No Name Michael, No Name David, Mud Man, Dutchy, No Name Peter: Returners.

Jock Twat & Legs Wide Open: Beer Crew Returners, non-attendance at last run due to Big Toe problem and thanks for services in being a beer crew.

Mudman: The deceiver - Fake Beer in the truck, and misleading fellow hashers that he had beer available during the alcohol ban.

Head Ballcock: pocket billiards and potential GM for pushing current GM to get on with calling the circle.

Head Ballcock: for stepping into the circle

Slime & Tinks: Falsely reporting no CAH3 Committee members in attendance. Advising that Lucky Me was the Holder of the CAH3 and he was the auditor.

Head Ballcock and Cock in a Frock: next weeks CAH3 hash location off the Klong road between Chom Phol and Springfield Roads

The circle was then closed, and some Hashers headed off to the Swiss Europe Butcher Restaurant, Hua Hin Soi 102.
