Pre-Run

A return visit to the the same area as CAH3 Run # 410 on 15/05/21 close to White Stone Villas. With the promise of a supply of amber nectar saw the return of a few hashers, and by the start time 25 were in attendance to listen to the pre run briefing from the hares Jock Twat and Brambles Bill. Two trails with one split and one merge. No cows , a few yappy dogs, a barbed wire fence in one location, maybe a flase trail.

The Trail

With the briefing over the pack were pointed in the direction of the trail, although Donga had other ideas. The trail went through shrubbery to the first check which by the time I had arrived had been broken in the wrong direction. Possible reason was finding old trail markings from the last hash in the area. However Hare JT was frantically blowing on his whistle to try and get everybody back on trail. The trail went across the open ground and then through shrubbery and rubbish piles before turning down towards the side of the lake to a familiar check point location. It was some time before the trail was found and then on up to the pylon line track. The trail then turned right and headed alongside the hill and skirted a new ly cleared area of land . The trail then headed west to the run/walk split. Walkers to the right and Rambos to the left and towards Soi 88. The walkers trail headed back south and then skirted a babrbed wire fence until there was a suitable crossing point. From here the trail headed back towards home. At this point I came across Ballbanger, Dragon Tail and Tweedle Dum on the wrong side of a fence line. BB and DT headed north while TD headed south and eventuall found a crawl space under the fence. From here on it was homeward bound.

The Rambo loop (Magenta trail on image above) headed north towards Soi 88 and then took a turn east and then meandering northwards to Soi 88 and then west before heading back south to rejoin the walkers trail at the original split point.

Pre-Circle:

Upon arrival back at the start Cathusalem was already back having been guided by Brambles Bill but unfortunately BB and DT were faster than expected and missed the opportunity of the short cut. The pack gradually returned over the next ten minutes or so and they were quick to quench their thirst with a fully stocked cooler box. The post run circle was called around 6:40 and the following Down Downs awarded.

Circle Down-Downs:

Hats in the Circle: Tinks, accused by JT of not wearing a Hash Cap in the circle.

Hares: Jock Twat and Brambles Bill received a thumbs up for a well laid trail although some complaints about the start.

Donga: for starting the trail in the wrong direction having not listened to the Hares.

Returners: Donga, Matron, Butt Out, Little Behind, Flash in the Pan.

Private Circles: Jock Twat, Tweedle Dum, Rubber Duck, Cathusalem

Welcome to H2H3: Wallywood ex Kho Samui Hasher.

Teapotting in the circle: Donga, Thalidoskid, Tweedle Dum.
