Pre-Run

A Virgin location for the first run of 2022 and 11 years since the last time we ran on 1st January 2011 when the Hares were Ballbanger and Dragon Tail at Cha-Am Forest Park. As it was a public holiday the venue was free of trucks and excavators removing fill material from the quarry. As the approach roads were rather dusty the hares located the carpark in the bottom of the quarry. Some hashers had difficulty finding the location either because Desktop Monkey Google directed them to a road on the wrong side of the quarry or they missed the HHH signs on the road. Eventually 27 hashers had gathered under clear blue skies Vice Master Pussy Peddler called the pack together for the pre-run briefing. Tinks advised of no obstacles, no dogs, no cattle, no fence crossings, possible false trails from the checks, two trail, a Walkers and a Rambo's and should take about 1 hour. Usual markings, paper on the left, checks, and signs at splits.

The Trail

The pack set out just after 4:00 pm as Dave the Rave and Sodomy arrived. The trail led out of the quarry to the right and crossed over a ditch and then led right to the first check., The False trail was found by Mudman while the rest continued to the second check before heading towards a tree line and then heading left into an open field. From here the trail led to the first Run/Walk split. At this point I had caught up with the pack and was able to direct Ballbanger and Dragon Tail on the main trail back towards the start. I quickly then removed the split sign and reset paper so that the pack upon returning to the same spot would then be behind BB and DT. I could hear the front runners calling so they had navigated the trail through the palm plantation without to much problem. Should have laid more false trails. I quickly back tracked to meet up with Golden Delicious and Orange Pippin who had reset the trail for the second Walk/Rambo split. As we made our way back to the On In the FRB's were seen heading out on the final 1.4 km Rambo loop. Back at the car park. BB and DT just arrived ahead of Matron and the front walkers having completed trail in just one hour. The rest of the pack were all back within the next ten minutes.

Post-Circle and On After

Although there was an on after possible at Coconuts there was not much interest. So, a little more beverage consumption while packing up the beverage truck.
