Pre-Run

A return to an area used not so long ago by Rubber Duck but familiar to co-hare Pussy Peddler. The gathering area had good tree coverage and made for a pleasant start to this week's hash. As start time approached the majority of the 32 attendees had arrived in time for the pre-hash briefing provided by co-hare/Vice Master Pussy Peddler. There were two trails a walk and a Rambo trail with advice that those who were unsure of their footing to avoid the Rambo section. No hazards to be encountered on trail except one low barbed wire crossing which had been covered with stones. There was also a short walk option for Cathusalem, Ballbanger and Dragon Tail.

The Trail

With the briefing over the pack were pointed in the uphill direction to the split while BB, DT and Cathusalem were pointed in an alternative direction to meet up with the trail. However Cathusalem ended up going out on the main trail and with the advice from PP headed back to the start and then took the short walk option. Meanwhile the Rambo hashers headed off down hill only to find the trail looping back round and back up the hill to meet back at the initial split point. From here it was one trail back to the start. Apparently there were no checks and no false trails and the full trail ended up being 3 km. Cock in a Frock couldn't believe it was that short so back tracked before deciding that was also a mistake.

Pre-Circle and Circle Down-Downs:

With the pack arriving earlier than expected the beverage boxes took a bashing. Sodomy also arrived having totally missed the start having not following the written misdirection's and relying more on his satnav which in the UK gets you to where you want to be. Also, when is a paved road not a paved road when it is tarmac or concrete for easy access by vehicles so as not to get stuck in mud, sand etc.

Vice Master Pussy Peddler award the following Down Downs:

Hares: Matron and Pussy Peddler – Rambo's trail voted good, Walkers voted two short, but all enjoyable.
