Pre-Hash.

A Grand Day out.

“No one’s bigger than the Club” -Sir Alex Ferguson

Rain or Shine, 1st rule of Hashing: Never cancel a Hash!

A big shout out to our intrepid Hares, who stood up beyond the call of duty, set a fantastic scenic trail last minute. Dave the Rave, Farmer John & Muck Spreader. Enjoyed by over 30 hashers on a fine bright Saturday afternoon, with a 4pm start.

The 1st challenge was Getting into the car park with a pot-holed slope before the firing range, lucky the road was dry, but Hashers were in a jolly mood with Christmas and stuffing some bird or another on their minds.

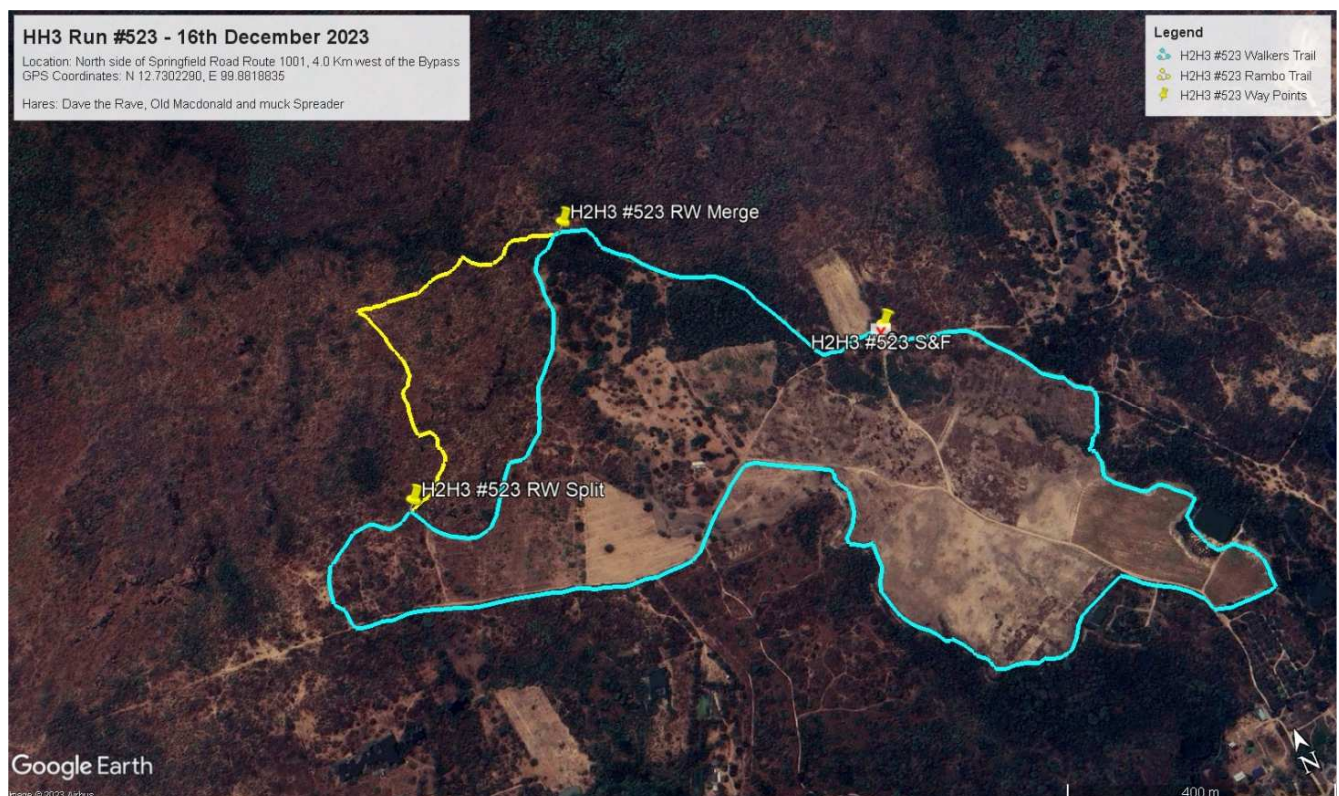

Tinks stood forward and supplied the cold refreshments, the girls put the table up with strange looking fruits and snacks, African Queen usual Hash Cash after her intrepid walk-up Kilimanjaro or the Thai equivalent!

Pre-Hash Circle.

Tinks called the circle welcomed newbies, virgins.

The hares gave instructions about timid Cows and dogs, and a scenic waterfall and Rambo trail and announced there would be a FREE Buffet at the 19th Hole, so 20 people put their hands up in a flash!

Trail.

A well-marked trail with the runners finding checks and false trails to keep them behind the walkers for a while, undergrowth, and hills all around a great hash location, with streams and cattle. Sensible Hashers Tinks and Penny Lane took the safe option and went round the hill, instead of up and over but the Hashers enjoyed the climb to the waterfall, making their overall trail about 200 m longer. Runners and walkers came in dribs and drabs, but No FRB, maybe his time away he had forgotten what to do! But someone mentioned he enjoyed it so much he went round twice!

The Circle and Down Downs:

No Committee but we had the jokers in the pack Dimwit and Head Ballcock but joke of the day went to Dave the Rave, after a very friendly gathering of chairs in this scenic spot Tinks called the circle after numerous charges, the hares got an astounding 11/10 for their efforts.

Tinks kept the circle fun, no need for an RA today! Lots of songs and interaction from the Hashers, Dave the Rave stood up at the end and asked for comments about the Timing of the run at 4PM. A big thumbs up, no problems, people agreed an earlier time to be considered in the future as people don't get bitten by mosquitos and can drive home before dark.

The On After:

The convoy headed off to the 19th hole for food and dancing!

Check out the great video that was made! <https://youtu.be/ijZRBHEOSTQ>

A great trail for the year's end, don't forget the outstation in January, expect more fun and games!
