Well the rain stayed off, and off we go, the trail hard under foot walking across ploughed fields, with two minutes of respite in places, flat then back over fields, we have family visiting so took them along, the little one Lauren had had enough before we were half way round but soon moved when I said well if we don't move pretty quick it will be dark and all the insects come out to play that got her moving and a promise of drinks crisps and snacks did the trick, walking round as I say was hard underfoot but doable, I did notice that when we emerged from a field and towards the road Colossus started to limp oh look there's the hares oh look they have a car, now that's a short cut.

Christening this week was performed by the RA Colossus christening REAR END full service followed by ice cold water over the head and fitting to his name iced water at the rear end, he did look to be enjoying it, enjoyable circle and it's off we go to the On After at Tum A Restaurant, good company and food when it actually turned up.

Jock Twat kindly ordered fish for himself and Colossus a few day previous, only to find a frog who shall remain nameless had beaten him to it, hahahaha not amused, note to one self Jock Twat bugger the clearing up after the circle and get to the restaurant on time, xx
