Run # 301, 14 January

The first run of the year was hared by Ahmedashed and Aom at Hupkapong reservoir, 7 kilometers up Hupkapong road from the main highway. Ahmedashed recce'd the run several times before putting the final touches to the trail on the morning of the run as we had been experiencing much unseasonal rainfall the week preceding the run.

As the run was to hit the trail at 4:30 in the afternoon, the first hashers began to arrive at the run site at 3:30. There were no late arrivals which meant we missed Davey Delayed in the choir.

For the second time in Cha Am Hash history we dropped the hash taxes to 50 baht. As we were unable to recruit any volunteer to deliver the beer in the absence of our most recent Beermeister, we encouraged all hashers to load their own cooler with ice, their beer of choice and anything else they may wish to drink plus any snacks they might need to sustain them until the On After.

Cold Leo and Chang was for sale at 50 baht per can to ensure that visitors and hashers who forget to bring their own would have it.

The hares did an excellent job of arranging for wonderful weather on this Saturday afternoon and we had a good turnout for this event.

According to the tax payment envelopes the following half minds were with us:

Conspicuously missing on the run were regulars Pussy Galore and Masterbaker which meant that nobody got bread in the car park on the first CAH3 run of the year.

Cathusalem,, current Grand Master of the Hua Hin Hash was absent and the rumour is that he stayed home to plan for diabolical ways to punish attendees to H2H3 runs who are not wearing some type of hash T-shirt. Ballbanger sold a dozen hash T-shirts at 100 baht each to ease the threat a little bit.

Steptoe and Odds On were missed by the hashers who once enjoyed 200 baht worth of beer for just 150 baht but that's just Mudman & I. Odds On was missed because she helps the hash look good.

Ballbanger is currently taking orders for the CAH3 300th run T-shirt. Space Cowboy was the winner of the T-shirt contest with the New Year Baby which will be the front of the shirt. Dragon Tail come in a distant second place which is the Rooster which will be on the back.:

Cha Am Hash 300th Run

New Years Eve, 2017

These T's will be issued to buyers at the CAH3 Chinese New Years run on 28 January at Lumbering Jack's country estate. (details in separate memo)

If you wish to buy one of these shirts, e-mail the hash Haberdasher: donaltetley@gmail.com.

Provide your shirt size by inches around the chest. The shirts will almost certainly be white but they will not be black. They will be light coloured if colored at all.

If you wish to provide your own T-shirt or Tank Top, you must give it to Ballbanger at the H2H3 run on 21 January. Make sure that you have your name on any garment you provide.

The price of our New Year T-shirt is 150 baht. We need no advance payment as your e-mail requesting the shirt is your word.

Whether you provide a garment or not, if Ballbanger does not have your e-mail requesting a 300th run T-shirt by 20 January, you've missed the boat.

Also, Ballbanger will have a variety of hash T-shirts for sale from his golden chariot if you approach him discretely. Cathusalem is drooling at the opportunity to punish any attendee not properly attired so do not take him threats lightly. You might be forced to down down warm Chang beer and Jock Twat even suggested that the Chang be substituted with Archa Beer which tastes like horse piss according to the guy with the whip. I personally have no knowledge of what horse piss tastes like but if it is as bad as that stuff that comes out of a beer bottle with an elephant on the label, I do not want to know. (Archa has a horse on the label).

You might also let Ballbanger know if you want a 100 baht shirt: donaltetley@gmail.com

Having digressed from the hash run, and getting back on track, it was nice to have all runners and walkers back on the booze in the car park and not lost in the woods when the sun went down over the lake.

Just about the time the time the big orange ball was settling into the saddle in the hills, Long Ron blew a loud blast on his hash horn and Pussy Peddler called the circle. Pussy Peddler being who he is, and the circle being what it is, discretion requires that a person really needs to be in attendance to know what happened and what didn't happen. Hashing really is adult stuff. Enuff said.

Once Pussy Peddler finished what probably would have never started at any event not attended entirely by the half minded people who become hashers, night had fallen and it was just about time to paint the town red. However, the Chilli Bordello was much closer than town and Madame Keith , purveyor of cold beer and other bordello offerings made us all welcome once he woke up and found us in his establishment and the night truly began, ending the very 1st run of the Cha Am Hash for 2017.

Don't miss tun number 302 of the Cha Am Hash House Harriers. It will be the second time in less than 30 days that we will have a New Years Eve event on 28 January, the 1st night of Chinese New Years. There will be the customary hash run,, walk, amble, stumble, grumble etc followed by that circle that we do not like to talk about in public followed by a BBQ, bonfire, and fireworks reminiscent of Guy Fawkes night. Details later.
