Nineteen hardy hashers braved the light drizzle that was still coming down Saturday afternoon for a most enjoyable hash. I arrived almost on time just to see the pack setting off to search for the first of the paper Mudman kindly waited behind while I got my hash shoes on and we then set off in pursuit of the rest of the hashers quite a tricky first check soon let us catch up before the check had been broken. Unusual for me I managed to get the next couple of checks right first time and after which we hit a bit of a slippery patch caused by the rain before coming across Swindlers kindly putting more paper down and pointing right at a tricky part of the run in case any had been washed away by the rain

Most the paper was still on course and with a bit of looking to keep us on our toes the FRB's of Mudman and myself got round in 40 minutes, Tinks managed a respectable 3rd place maybe even without short cutting closely followed by Bushwacker. A well-earned and much appreciated beer, snacks, fun circle were then had with both runners and walkers giving thumbs up for the trail followed by a healthy seventeen of us going on to the on after where the good times continued

Overall an excellent hash that I look forward to going round in the opposite direction on Wednesday's Fun Run

On On,

Sodomy
