

At very little or no notice at all, the new choir debuted at the Cha Am St. Georges day hash. I can imagine hashers in years to come proudly declaring "I was there!" Like true blues hashers they had been celebrating the previous evenings full moon party at Hua Hin's trendy night club "EAST" and a whistleblower insider had told me the chances of them turning up to the St. Georges hash was somewhere between zero and none. Thankfully they made it and with veteran soprano Dave Delayed's help carried the circle revelry to great aplomb and I may add in a pleasant palatable harmonious way. Showing that this was not just a one-off aberration, at last Saturday's hash they once again stepped up to the plate completely on their own! With our Hash Choir leader Cathusalem taking a sabbatical in the UK and Dave Delayed mysteriously missing, the new Choir badgered on and overlooking the odd lyrical interpretations, successfully sent shivers up ones spine with harmonies never before heard within my lifetime of hashing.

The new choir is now on tour, wherever the trails may be they have promised to set the circle alight with traditional folk songs, classic hash songs and even their own interpretations which may use rapping and reggae styles. No extra entrance fee money will be required to experience this new phenomenon currently taking the hashing world by storm, so we can all look forward to a bright future, knowing our choir is continuing to thrive. A big "down down" to Fish Finger alias Colossus, Lost Cause and Karaoke Queen. And God help us all!
